Gateway Community Health Centre

Job Title: Primary Health Care Nurse Practitioner
Job Type: Full-time, Schedule: Flexible
Salary: $114,212.00- $137,024.00
Clinic Location: Gilmour Medical Clinic- 371 Weslemkoon Lake Rd, Gilmour

Gateway Community Health Centre, located in rural Ontario, provides comprehensive primary care, dental services, and allied health support. Our work focuses on health promotion and illness prevention, delivered through a collaborative, inter-professional team.

We serve individuals and families at every stage of life, with a particular emphasis on those at higher risk or facing barriers to accessing care. We are deeply committed to innovation and excellence in service delivery, while fostering an inclusive workplace and partnering to build a vibrant, healthy community where everyone can thrive.

The Primary Health Care Nurse Practitioner will conduct comprehensive health assessments and physical examinations across the lifespan, using evidence-informed clinical reasoning to formulate diagnoses. The role involves collaborating with clients and interdisciplinary care teams to develop and coordinate individualized care plans, as well as identifying trends in client health needs to inform program planning and advocacy efforts. The incumbent will also be responsible for maintaining clear, accurate, and timely documentation, including electronic medical records, reports, and requisitions.
